*M72
S594g

a / /1869
ST

NAMES. GARDEN RUE. PART

Arabick سناب

G. Πηγανον

L. Ruta

I. Ruta

G. Raute

F. Ruë

S. Arruda

D. Ruijte

PLACE

This grows only in Gardens.

PART
In the Shop part of this but the Leav

PREPAR
A Sy
a Co L

DESCRIPTION.

The Root and Stalks of this Plant are Woody, Branching into m
The Stalk 1 is coverd with a smooth Bark of a Sea green colour inclining to as the stalks grow tall is spotted with many small whitish Spots. The Leav divided into an Irregular number of Smaller ones, that are Thick Fat, ha Veins, and of a very Blueish green. The Empalement 3 is Divided int pointed parts, more Yellow then the Stalk. The Flowers 4 are Yel Petals more hollow than a Spoon, and Jagg'd round the Edges, four in The Ovary or Seed Vessels 5 are of a good green, the upper part is in Four having many small hollow places on the outside. The Style 6 is whiter a The Chives 7 are of a Yellowish green, Two to every Petal. The Summits 7 an are the same. The Seed 8 is Small, Black, and of various Shapes. a.b.
Magnified. e A Leaf dried.

VIRTUES

It is a hot, bitter plant: and where bitter and heating Medici use this may enter the Composition. It has been us'd against the effe noxious Vapours.

T. Sheldrake delin.

C.